RECOMMENDED WHITE WINES

ROBERT SINSKEY 'ABRAXAS' 2014 · CARNEROS, CALIFORNIA

Abraxas, the wine, is the embodiment of leaving well enough alone. Abraxas, the name, has early Egyptian and Greek origins. The belief was that Abraxas was all powerful, who embodied both good and evil. Abraxas ruled the heavens and, in both Greek and Hebrew, the letters add up to 365. Abraxas takes the good with the bad and instead of seeking idyllic perfection, Abraxas embraces distinctiveness... and in wine, distinctiveness is the name of the game. Made from Pinot Gris, Riesling & Gewürtztraminer in the traditions of Alsace. 70

DONKEY & GOAT 'GADABOUT' 2016 · CALIFORNIA

Donkey & Goat Winery is owned and operated by Jared & Tracey Brandt in Berkeley, California. They make 'natural wines'; a term which covers both the vineyard and the cellar. This is what distinguishes natural wine- the extension of natural farming philosophies which drive the practices for sustainable, organic & biodynamic farming into the cellar. The 'Gadabout' will always be white & delicious; the blend of vineyards and appellations will evolve. It will always be a crowd pleaser, as a quencher that brings pleasure. This medium bodied, ripe iteration is made from Grenache Blanc, Marsanne, Roussanne, Vermentino, and Chardonnay. 52

CHAPPELLET CHENIN BLANC 'PRITCHARD HILL' 2015 · NAPA, CALIFORNIA

Chenin Blanc is best known for producing world class wines throughout the central Loire Valley of France in appellations such as Vouvray and Savennieres. Chenin's versatility is incredible; producing still, sparkling, dry, off-dry and sweet wines of equal interest and merit. Chappellet Chenin Blanc has a long and storied history on Pritchard Hill, with vines already producing when Donn and Molly purchased the property in the late 1960's. To add depth and complexity, their Chenin Blanc was fermented in a combination of neutral French oak barrels, stainless steel barrels & tanks, and a Nomblot concrete 'egg'. This wine is medium bodied with the weight & texture to pair with richer cuisine, meats and fowl, followed by a crisp, dry finish. 70

CHEHALEM GRÜNER VELTLINER 'RIDGECREST VINEYARD' 2014 · WILLAMETTE, OREGON

Grüner Veltliner (Green Veltliner) is a white wine grape variety grown primarily in Austria. Along the Danube to the west of Vienna, it grows with Riesling on terraces & slopes so steep they can barely retain any soil. The result is a very pure, mineral driven wine capable of long aging, that stands comparison with some of the great wines of the world. In Oregon, these qualities are tempered with more fertile soils, yielding a rounder texture. Grüner is an incredibly versatile wine, pairing well with vegetables, fried food, seafood and white meats. Unoaked, medium bodied, savory and dry. 63

MICHAEL SHAPS PETIT MANSING 2015 · MONTICELLO, VIRGINIA

Michael Shaps has been making wine in Virginia for nearly 30 years, focusing on an old-world style while selecting grapes that showcase the potential of the unique terroir nestled in the woods south of Charlottesville. His Petit Mansing is no exception. The grapes are gently pressed off of their skins and the resulting juice is barrel fermented and aged in a mixture of neutral oak barrels and stainless steel. The juice undergoes no malolactic fermentation, allowing for a vivacious natural acidity. The result is a uniquely American wine, bone dry yet brimming with tropical notes of mango, starfruit and lime peel. Dramatically intense and memorable. 60

RECOMMENDED RED WINES

OWEN ROE 'SINISTER HAND' 2016 · COLUMBIA VALLEY, WASHINGTON

This is a deftly balanced red grape mash up inspired by the delicious field blends of France's Southern Rhône valley. In this wine, Grenache, Syrah, Mourvedre and Cinsault coalesce to create a medium+/full bodied wine packed with flavors unadulterated by new oak. Long ago, during the 17th century, the O'Neills and O'Reillys were two revolutionary Irish families. They formed a rowing competition to reserve rights to some highly regarded land. The two rowing teams agreed that the first to touch the land, after rowing across the lake, would become ruler of the land. O'Neill's boat was falling behind so a member of the crew grabbed his own sword, cut off his hand and threw it ashore, winning the title to rule the land. This land still remains in the family. 64

GOthic 'MAELSTROM' PINOT NOIR 2012 · WILLAMETTE VALLEY, OREGON

"A descent into the Maelstrom." The 2012 Maelstrom from Gothic uses a portion of 'whole clusters', rather than a complete de-stemming of fruit as it arrives to the winery before being aged for sixteen months in French oak, of which 25% was new. This adds textural and aromatic complexity in addition to tannins and grip. A moderate ruby color leads towards aromas of red plum, black cherry and saffras. The glass is seemingly brimming with flavors of wild red fruits, anise and sweet birch. The 2012 vintage was glorious and warm. Grapes ripened gradually during a beautiful, dry summer and fall, yielding healthy, dark fruit rich in flavor and color. This wine was named for the swirling vortex in Edgar Allen Poe's story of the same name. Tumultuous, dark, and twisted with elegance and sheer beauty. 90

FORLORN HOPE 'SUSPIRO DEL MORO' ALVARELHÃO 2015 · SIERRA FOOTHILLS, CALIFORNIA

Pinot Noir at the disco. Savory green herbs, floral aromas of gardenia topped with a berry swirl. Low in tannin and light bodied, this wine spends 10 months in stainless steel and sees no oak. Forlorn Hope wines were born to connect the thread between California's boundless viticultural potential and its diverse viticultural history. In addition to the vines farmed by Matthew Rorick and his family, Forlorn Hope works with a handful of growers across the north of the state whose plantings might otherwise be misfits: the uncommon sites and varieties that pay tribute to California's eclectic and often unexpected viticultural heritage. 66

ROBERT FOLEY CHARBONO 2014 · NAPA, CALIFORNIA

Charbono is a red Italian wine grape variety historically grown in the Savoie wine region (which shifted from Italian to French control in 1860), but today is more widely planted in Argentina. Some describe the variety as '... the Rodney Dangerfield of wine', noting that it is a hard variety for which to find a market. We prefer to describe this as the Barry White of wine; very deep, and very, very smooth. 94

ELIZABETH SPENCER GRENACHE 'PROPRIETOR SELECT' 2016 · MENDOCINO, CALIFORNIA

Husband and wife team Liz & Spencer make their wines with a handful of outstanding and experienced growers in Sonoma and Mendocino which provide inspired fruit for a clutch of vividly fresh and endearingly delicious wines. (Their debut wine was 1998 Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon, made every year since.) This Grenache, a sensational value, packs an outrageous amount of flavor into a medium bodied package meant to be paired with all sorts of cuisine. 45
